Chippewa Valley Youth Symphony's 30th Season premier with the Fall Pops Concert

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EAU CLAIRE—The Chippewa Valley Youth Symphony (CVYS) is premiering its 30th anniversary season with the Fall Pops Concert on Tuesday November 2. The performance will begin at 7 p.m. in the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire's Haas Fine Arts, Gantner Concert Hall. The Pops Concert is also the symphony's first performance conducted by newly appointed director Dr. Peter Haberman.

"Every week I see them working hard and I hear their individual improvements," Haberman said, "I feel the ensemble getting more confident and proud of their upcoming performance."

The Pops Concert kicks off the 30th anniversary season with a more modern music selection. The pieces to be performed by the CVYS include the following.

- Franz Von Suppe, Poet & Peasant Overture
- Jerry Bock, Symphonic Dances from Fiddler on the Roof
- Klaus Badelt, Pirates of the Caribbean: The Curse of the Black Pearl
- John Williams, Star Wars Epic Suite #2
- Aaron Copland , Hoe Down from Rodeo

Tickets will be sold at the door and are $3 for adults and free for children and students. Doors open at 6:45 p.m. For more information, please visit our website at www.cvyouthsymphony.org or call the youth symphony office at 715-955-4085. Dr. Haberman is available for interviews.

The Chippewa Valley Youth Symphony is sponsored in part by Wisconsin Public Radio, the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire and the Chippewa Valley Vein Center.
